Description

Floating Dock Floats by Sorfan - Quality, Durability, and Reliability

Sorfan is a European manufacturer of high-quality floating dock floats, produced using modern rotomoulding (rotational moulding) technology. Our floats are designed for long-term durability, safety, and ease of installation – perfect for recreational docks, marinas, platforms, swimming areas, and professional waterfront structures.

Sorfan floats are made from high-density polyethylene (HDPE) resistant to mechanical damage, frost, and UV radiation. Thanks to their sealed design, they ensure excellent buoyancy, stability, and long-lasting performance.

Available sizes (cm):

- 100 × 50 × 30
- 100 × 50 × 42
- 100 × 50 × 60
- 100 × 100 × 42
- 120 × 100 × 73

The floats are easily attached to the dock structure, ensuring a secure and stable connection. The standard colour is black, but we can manufacture floats in any custom colour upon request.

Why choose Sorfan floats?

- Exceptional durability – made from high-quality polyethylene using rotomoulding technology.
- Precision manufacturing – guaranteed tightness and dimensional consistency.
- Custom colours and sizes – tailored to your project.
- Attractive factory-direct prices – no intermediaries.
- Fast production and delivery times – short lead times across Europe.

- European distribution – we supply both private and business customers across the EU.
- Custom designs available – we can produce floats in non-standard shapes or sizes according to your specifications.

Sorfan – quality you can trust.

Our floats have been successfully used in hundreds of projects throughout Europe.
